Description

Three hours from Paris, on the Cotentin bay and very close to the picturesque village of Sainte-Mère-Eglise, stands the Domaine de Ravenoville. Established in a region of history and heroism, this exceptional complex overlooking the beach of Utah Beach, is located in the heart of a wild and preserved environment between sea and the plain

Just a stone's throw from the beach, in the heart of a fully restored park, this exceptional 17th century architectural ensemble is made up of three buildings: a manor house Le Manoir de Revelie a former dovecote Le Bonheure des Colombes and a pavilion Le Pavillon de Reveile
Abandoned for a long time, this former seigniorial estate was reborn from its ruins in 2012, while retaining its former soul.
In the park, a subtle blend of French garden and English countryside, the ruin of a later castle remains, now laid out and staged around a pond and a garden of simple plants, a true sanctuary for the contemplative.

Located between land and sea, close to the famous landing beaches, the Pavillon de Ravelie welcomes you for a relaxing stay in an exceptional setting. Its decoration, between classicism and marine atmosphere will make you feel automatically at home. Depending on the number of people, you can choose to rent the whole house for 8 people) or only one of the two flats (for 4 people on request). The Pavilion is the perfect place to have a beautiful stay and create family memories.

Whether with family or friends, you will appreciate the warm and friendly atmosphere, both hushed and convivial, typical of country houses.
Faithfully restored thanks to the providential discovery of a postcard, the pavilion is now divided into two flats of two bedrooms each.
While offering the possibility to gather together, this arrangement also allows privacy and independent living if necessary.

The ground floor flat is organised in the continuity of the decoration of the manor house of this domain, with its large comfortable living room decorated with woodwork and its imposing fireplace. The first floor has a "yacht club" atmosphere that pays homage to the marine world and invites you to escape with its vast ceiling heights.

Plenty to do, get on a bike and head off to the beaches of Ravenoville just 5 minutes away from the Domaine. This immense play park is the perfect spot for fishing on foot with your family, a horse cavalcade or …. an introduction to sand yachting! From April to October Utah Mer Loisirs offers classes for beginners.

To continue your quest of a change in scenery, be sure to include an excursion to St. Vaast la Hougue, an adorable village labelled in 2018 as “preferred village” by the French. Its small fishing port and its winding streets will be charm you.
Between April and September continue to the other side of the coast, where you can admire the magnificent classified Gardens of Vauville, designed by the talented landscape architect Guillaume Pellerin and his wife Cléophée de Turckheim.
On the way back, stop in Valognes to visit Hôtel de Beaumont, one of most beautiful, private mansions of Cotentin and dine at L’Epicurien. The menu is simple but delicious and the staff absolutely outstanding, however, be sure to book ahead!
