Description

Villa Angela Blu, a serene coastal gem nestled in Santa Flavia, Palermo, encapsulates Sicilian elegance and comfort at its finest. Its most enchanting feature is the direct access to a small, secluded beach, where the shore greets the clear azure waters of the Mediterranean, blending the luxury of an exclusive retreat with the natural splendour of the Sicilian coast.

The magnificent pool, a masterpiece in its own right, is perfectly positioned to offer panoramic sea views, creating a captivating continuum of blue—its sparkling waters merge with the vast Mediterranean Sea and the clear sky above. Complete with a jacuzzi and heating option; it promises unparalleled relaxation as guests surrender to the infinite azure vistas.

Enveloped by a lush Mediterranean garden of about 3,000 square meters, the villa harmoniously blends vibrant flora with the blue sky and shimmering sea. This picturesque setting invites strolls and scenic appreciation, seamlessly connecting the verdant garden to the coastline.

Adding to its unique charm, a lemon grove by the sea stands as a testament to the villa's deep connection with Sicilian agricultural traditions, offering an authentically local experience. The villa's interior continues to enchant, with its spacious and bright living room opening onto a sea-view patio, bringing a sense of freedom and airiness. The kitchen, adorned with Sicilian tiles, exudes traditional charm and beauty.

The villa hosts comfort and privacy in its well-designed bedrooms. On the ground floor, the house features two double bedrooms, each with its en-suite bathroom. One of the bedrooms boasts a cosy French bed. Ascending to the first floor, the Master double bedroom with a private terrace offers breath-taking sea views. This bedroom is perfect for romantic escapes or enjoying a peaceful sunbathing session. Moreover, this floor includes another double bedroom and a bathroom with a tub/shower.
These rooms share a common bathroom, offering convenience and comfort.

Beyond the villa, the enchanting context of Santa Flavia beckons discovery. Guests can explore Palermo's rich history and vibrant culture, a city brimming with architectural wonders and lively, colourful markets just a short drive away. The famous archaeological site of Solunto, with its ancient ruins and stunning views, offers a glimpse into the historic past of Sicily. For nature lovers, the nearby Madonie Regional Natural Park features a range of picturesque landscapes and hiking trails. At the same time, the charming coastal towns of Cefalù and Aspra are perfect destinations for day trips.

Villa Angela Blu is a coastal jewel that offers an extraordinary holiday experience for those seeking utmost privacy and tranquillity, immersed in the astounding beauty of Sicily, its enchanting sea, and the rich cultural tapestry of its surroundings
